Where Men Are "Pretty."

A British investigator is ungallant enough to state that the reason why women are as a rule of a beauty not attained by men lies in the fact that they are more indolent and not so prone to "exercise their brains" as men are. Intellectual labors and assiduous attention to business are, according to this authority, matters extremely prejudicial to the development of physical beauty.

In support of his theory this Briton points to the Zaros, a tribe of British India. Among them, it appears, women hold the place that in other countries is pre-empted by men. The Zaro woman manages the affairs of state, engages in business on her own account and does not restrict herself in the narrow field of woman elsewhere. On the other hand, the Zaro man has nothing to do but cook the meals and look after the children. The natural result of all this, says our scientist, is that the men of this singular tribe are "very pretty" and the women unusually plain.

Memorial to Aviators.

At Louveciennes there is a memorial which commemorates the ascent of the first Montgolfier balloon. The brothers Montgolfier were on friendly terms with the celebrated statesman Boissy d'Anglas, and they offered to make their first experiment in his park. After the famous ascent, Francois Antoine Boissy d'Anglas erected a little column to commemorate the event, simply bearing the date. The ravages of time are seen on the column, and the date is almost obliterated. To the casual observer this famous landmark is only a mystery, but Boissy d'Anglas evidently saw the possibility of aerial flight by erecting this modest memorial.

Too Much Selfishness.

One of the reasons why the present age is said to be so exceptionally dismal is that so many men and women give themselves up to selfishness. Selfishness is the secret of unhappiness.

Animal Early Loses Markings.

At what age does the little tapir lose his markings? A tapir born four months ago in the London zoo is a plump little animal, exactly like his parents, except it is strongly barred with white horizontal stripes, while, as everybody knows, old tapirs are plain, dark slate color. But now, after four months, the stripes are disappearing, those at the head being the first to go. Time has solved the problem.—New York Press.

The Last Word.

Determined to have the last word, the woman hunted through the dictionary and soon emerged triumphant with a list of three thousand framed from "Constantinople," and received therefore one year's subscription to the Joyful Home's big prize contest.—Judge.

"Title Talks"

The Business of Abstracting

The business of Abstracting titles is of comparatively recent growth. As lands increase in value, the need of title security becomes more and more imperative.

It is just as sensible to safeguard the title to a thousand dollar vacant lot or to any other property, as it is to keep your thousand dollar bond under lock and key.

PROTECTION IN EITHER CASE IS THE THING SOUGHT.

Good titles make real estate as negotiable as stocks and bonds.

There is no way of being sure about the title except by the help of an abstract by a reliable company.
